The Prisoners of War: Shame On You Who Neglect Your Sisters!

Written by Nuraddin El Amin.

بِسْمِ ٱللَّهِ ٱلرَّحْمَٰنِ ٱلرَّحِيمِ

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ ، اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ

السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ

All praise is due to God, Lord of all the worlds.

The Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful, Master of the Day of Judgment.

The One who sends down the Book and the Balance so that mankind may establish justice.
We praise Him, seek His aid, and ask for His forgiveness.

We seek refuge in God from the evils of our own souls and the consequences of our deeds.

Whomsoever God guides, none can misguide, and whomsoever God misguides, none can guide.

I bear witness that there is no god but God, alone, without any partners—the King, the Truth, the Manifest—and I bear witness that Muhammad is His slave and Messenger; The Seal of Prophets.

"And what is [the matter] with you that you do not fight in the cause of Allah and [for] the oppressed among men, women, and children..."

(Surah An Nisa, 4:75)

What Kind of Man Are You?

This is a direct message addressing each individual reading this: Shame on you!

The Beloved Prophet Muhammad ﷺ left this Ummah in your hands; He trusted you to take care of the weak, to defend the oppressed, and to honour the women and children.

Abu Hurairah reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said:

"O Allah, bear witness that I have issued a warning concerning (failure to fulfill) the rights of the two weak ones: Orphans and women."

Source: Ibn Majah 3678 (Hasan)

You were left a sacred trust from the one who was chosen to be the final Prophet and Messenger by your Creator, The Sustainer, Allah Almighty; Yet this was not enough for you to stand up, command justice, and reject cowardice?
How can you claim to love The Prophet ﷺ when you have betrayed his trust, and disregarded the commands that he ordered of you as a Believer?
Make no mistake my brothers: this is a deficiency of love for Allah and His Messenger ﷺ in your heart and a disease which has corrupted your soul!

Abu Hurairah reported that The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said:

"One who lends effort to the widows and the poor is like one waging jihad in the way of Allah, or one who regularly prays at night and fasts during the day."

Source: Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī 5353, Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim 2982

What is with the ‘men’ of our Ummah today!
Not only were you entrusted with this responsibility from The Messenger of Allah ﷺ, but you were even promised a guaranteed reward for fulfilling this obligation.
How then, do you manage to leave off such a grand obligation and ‘Ibadah?
My eyes tear for you—but my heart burns in rage against you—what state must you be in, if the promise of being rewarded like the Mujahid does not even push you to defend our women and children? Where is the dignity, the honour, or the Gheerah?

The Sahaba—may Allah be pleased with them—would race each other to the fulfillment of obligations, and even to the optional deeds that would grant a reward. They did not have a different Qur’an, they did not have a different Sunnah, so what did they have that you do not?

Certainty in Allah, and His promise, and the firm resolve to sacrifice for His sake!

Allah Almighty said:

“Have you seen the one who denies the final Judgment? That is the one who repulses the orphan, and does not encourage the feeding of the poor. So woe to those who pray, but are heedless of their prayer. Those who make show [of their deeds] and withhold [even the simplest] aid.”

Source: Al Ma’un, 107:1-7

What is your excuse now?
You have been given a trust, promised a reward, and now you see that Allah Almighty has issued a warning against these despicable actions. The Believer should have his heart shaken by this!
Are you beginning to see what it is I am trying to get through to you?
Your fragile ego may feel like I am attacking you—as if this is a personal matter—but the fact of the matter is I am trying to save you from your own self. Your cowardice is a contagious cancer.

Reflect On Who Is Reprimanding You!

I did not inherit Islam from my family; I reverted back to the fitrah and left behind the kufr and shirk I was raised upon, by the guidance I received from Allah Almighty.

So how is it that I am 'new' to this religion, yet, I have more *Gheerah for it than you do?

What do you think the perspective of someone like me is, when I see the state of the Ummah and I realize that the men I read about—those who are the example of what the true followers of Islam look like—are nothing but tales of the past, replaced by weakness and incompetence.

I will tell you: It disgusts me to my very core.

By Allah Almighty!
The One who created the heavens and earths!
The One who holds my soul in His hand!
I swear by Him in all of His greatness and majesty: The more I learn the true Deen of Islam and what Allah Almighty expects of us—and has commanded us—the more I grow to hate the Muslims for what they have so willingly allowed to occur.

How did I spend so long being taught about "piety" and "pleasing the Creator not the creation" yet never once did I hear a single Khutbah, Halaqah, or even a simple reminder to us Muslims of our sisters who are being tortured, oppressed and violated.
These people had the audacity to speak about "mental health" and "anxiety" pertaining to western schools and corporate jobs when there are righteous members of our Ummah who are being starved and humiliated at the exact same moment.

You should fear Allah Almighty with what you do!
What kind of evil and injustice is it to hide these events—and only when the 'Palestine Issue' globalises it—you then teach that it is not our problem to get physically involved, and you slander righteous men and women who didn't follow your Murji' poison.

I will repeat it once more: You were raised in this family, I only just arrived. Yet, somehow, I am the one who cares more, who hurts more, and who expects more?
What kind of evil has creeped inside of the hearts of our men?
How has the Muslim Ummah become so sick and spineless?

Allah is the One whose aid is sought.

The Laws That You Have Neglected

Abdullah ibn Umar reported:

"I saw the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) circumambulating the Ka'bah and saying: 'How good you are and how good your fragrance! How great you are and how great your sanctity! By the One in Whose Hand is the soul of Muhammad, the sanctity of the believer is greater before Allah than your sanctity—in his wealth, his blood, and to think nothing of him except good.'"

Source: Sunan Ibn Mājah 3932 (Sahih li ghayrihi)

How serious would it be if you saw the Ka'aba destroyed before your very eyes!
Yet when it comes to our innocent sisters and righteous Mujahideen, you turn your back on them, ignore them, and some of you even slander them so that the Kuffar are pleased with you! The Prophet ﷺ said with his own blessed mouth that the sanctity of the believer in those three rights is greater before Allah than the Ka'aba; Yet you think evil of them, withhold the provisions that are their right, and treat their blood as trivial.

By Allah Almighty—He is my witness as the All-Seeing—I have seen people who claim to be Muslims publicly grieving the death of treacherous, filthy, zionist jews and condemning those who killed them, and these same people have never said a word about our brothers and sisters in captivity! What is this? May Allah destroy them!

How can you consider the filthy blood of a satanist jew as worthy of acknowledgement—alongside grief and "statements" yet you watch our beloved sisters and their beautiful children live in oppression and torment while remaining silent—and still consider yourself a believer?

In his Tafsir, al-Qurtubi says:

"And if they seek help of you for religion..." [Al-Anfal: 72] means: if these believers who did not migrate from the land of war ask you for assistance—through deployment or wealth—to rescue them, then you must aid them; that is an obligation upon you, so do not abandon them.

"...except against a people between yourselves and whom is a treaty"—do not aid them against such a people, and do not violate the covenant until its term expires.

Ibn al-Arabi added:

Unless they are captive and oppressed, in which case the alliance (wilayah) with them remains in effect and rendering assistance to them is obligatory, to the extent that no blinking eye remains among us until we set out to rescue them—if our numbers permit—or we expend all our wealth to extract them until no dirham remains for anyone. Malik and all the scholars stated this. To Allah we belong and to Him we shall return, regarding what has befallen creation in their abandonment of their brothers in the captivity of the enemy, while in their hands are the treasuries of wealth, surplus means, capability, numbers, strength, and endurance.*

Source: Al-Jami' li-Ahkam al-Qur'an

It was said by Ibn Qudamah:

"Releasing the Muslim captives is obligatory (wajib), using whatever wealth is necessary from the Muslim treasury (Bayt al-Mal). If the treasury is empty, it becomes mandatory upon the Muslims collectively to pool their wealth until every captive is ransomed, because leaving them in the hands of the kuffar exposes them to the trial of their Deen."

The ruling of Shaykh al-Islam Ibn Taymiyyah:

"If a Muslim woman is taken captive in the East, it is incumbent upon the people of the West to secure her release."

Look at your bank account!

How much have you hoarded? That money does not belong to you, it belongs to Allah. Therefore, you should be handling it as He, The Glorious and Praiseworthy, has commanded you. Do you not yet realize that the money you hold is a right you have usurped from the innocent men, women, and children who are being killed, tortured, oppressed, and slandered?

What excuse do you have when the scholars say: “we expend all our wealth to extract them until no dirham remains for anyone.” and you continue living in ignorance and neglect?
Our teachers—those who are described as the inheritors of the Prophets—have informed us of our obligation, there is no confusion.
The statement: “to the extent that no blinking eye remains among us” is not metaphorical; it is not sweet poetry; it is a declaration that we must fight for the freedom of our brothers and sisters up until every single member of this Ummah is dead!

Is It Other Than Allah That You Fear?

Allah Almighty has stated the following:

"Say, 'If your fathers, your sons, your brothers, your wives, your relatives, wealth which you have acquired, commerce in which you fear decline, and dwellings with which you are pleased are more beloved to you than Allah and His Messenger and jihad in His path, then wait until Allah executes His command.' And Allah does not guide the defiantly disobedient people."

Source: At-Tawbah (9:24)

"O you who have believed, what is [the matter] with you that, when you are told to go forth in the cause of Allah, you sink heavily to the earth? Are you satisfied with the life of the worldly rather than the Hereafter? But what is the enjoyment of worldly life in the Hereafter except a little. If you do not go forth, He will punish you with a painful punishment and will replace you with another people, and you will not harm Him at all. And Allah is over all things competent."

Source: At-Tawbah (9:38-39)

"That is only Satan who frightens [you] of his supporters. So fear them not, but fear Me, if you are [indeed] believers."

Source: Ali 'Imran (3:175)

So what excuse do you cultivate for yourself as an exemption to this obligation?

You have been excused by none except Satan himself!

You have allowed the devils to infiltrate your heart with their whispers of doubt because of the Wahn (love of life and hate for death) that has entered your heart!

This is your weakness as a human, this is not something that destroys your morality or dignity as a Believer—however—when you begin twisting the words of Allah, His Messenger and the knowledgeable scholars of the past in order to claim that your excuse is valid: Now you have lied and transgressed against Allah.

Even worse is those who claim it obligatory to forsake their brothers and sisters so that they can preserve the luxurious delusion of the western-world that they have indoctrinated their families into accepting and submitting to!

In his book titled "Major Sins," Shaykh Muhammad ibn Abdul Wahhab—may Allah have mercy on him—has dedicated an entire chapter of this book on the topic of failing one's brother when he is in need.

If this is a major sin: then what is the case of the heart of those hypocrites who feel joy, happiness, or even just indifferent when it comes to the suffering of our brothers and sisters who are in excruciating hardship—How can these people commit such a despicable crime knowing that they will stand before Allah?

It was reported by Abdullah ibn Umar that the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

"A Muslim is the brother of a Muslim. He does not wrong him, nor does he hand him over to an enemy. Whoever fulfills the needs of his brother, Allah will fulfill his needs. And whoever relieves a Muslim from a distress, Allah will relieve him from a distress among the distresses of the Day of Resurrection. And whoever conceals the faults of a Muslim, Allah will conceal his faults on the Day of Resurrection."

It was reported by Abdullah ibn Umar that the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

"When you engage in inah transactions, take hold of the tails of cows, are content with agriculture, and abandon jihad, Allah will inflict upon you a disgrace that will not be removed until you return to your religion."

"Free the captive, feed the hungry, and pay a visit to the sick."

"Allah, the Blessed and Exalted, says: 'Spend (in My cause), O son of Adam, and I will spend on you.'"

Ibn al-Qayyim said:

"Fear over provision, status, or the future arises when the heart forgets that provisions are [already] decreed, and that Allah has not made striving an independent cause for provision [detached from His will]... and whenever a servant relies upon Him with true reliance, He suffices him completely."

The Real Way Of The Salaf

Every Muslim claims the Salaf as-Salih—but do you actually follow their example?
It is a treacherous trend amongst our Ummah that some of us will cherry-pick examples of the Khulafah ar-Rashidun, The Sahaba, Tabi'un, and the Salaf as-Salih; while leaving behind some of the most important practices and principles that they established amongst themselves.

Following the Salaf—however—is not simply avoiding Bid'ah and Shirk with strict Tawheed, nor is it a beard, thobe and a nice fragrance; It's not just attending the local masajid and halaqat nor is it blind following your Imams or 'rulers.'
Some of the most fundamental components of Islam have been either watered-down or abandoned entirely, so how are you Salafi?

Ponder the following statements from Umar Ibn al-Khattab:

"That I rescue a Muslim man from the hands of the disbelievers is more beloved to me than the entire Arabian Peninsula."

"And every Muslim captive who is in the hands of the polytheists, his ransom is from the public treasury of the Muslims."

Sources: Kitab al-Kharaj (p. 196), Kanz al-Ummal (vol. 4, p. 545) and Al-Mawsu'ah al-Fiqhiyyah (vol. 4, p. 215).

To claim you are a follower of such a person when you will not even give up the luxurious vanity of the Western lifestyle is preposterous and pathetic!
Here is Umar Ibn al-Khattab—may Allah be pleased with him—professing that he would give away the entirety of the Arabian Peninsula for a single Muslim man's freedom, and now here you are: You won't even give up the excess wealth in your pocket for the thousands suffering.

Amr ibn Abulaziz (The Khalifah) sent a letter to the POWs in Constantinople:

"You consider yourselves to be captives—and far be it from Allah, rather you are those detained (imprisoned) in the path of Allah.
Know that I do not distribute anything among my subjects without allocating to your families more than that, and the best of it.
Indeed, I have sent to you "so and so" with five dinars. Had I not feared that the tyrant of Rome would confiscate it from you, I would have sent you even more.
Furthermore, I have dispatched "so and so" to ransom your young and your old, your male and your female, your free and your enslaved, for whatever is demanded in exchange.
So rejoice, and again rejoice. And peace be upon you."

Reflect upon the very first words of Imad ad-Din Zengi when he conquered the city of Urfa:

"Release every Muslim prisoner held in chains, and restore the captive women and children to their families."

Take a look at the character of Ibn Umar:

“Ibn Umar would not leave someone who was trapped or imprisoned in the hands of the enemy if he had anything in his possession to ransom him with."

Source: Musannaf Ibn Abi Shayba (Kitab al-Jihad)

The clear stance of Shaykh al-Islam Ibn Taymiyyah:

"Indeed, the freeing of captives is from the greatest of obligations, and spending endowed wealth and other funds in that path is from the greatest acts of nearness [to Allah]."

Source: Majmoo' al-Fatawa (vol. 28, p. 642)

Baha' ad-Din ibn Shaddad records in al-Nawadir al-Sultaniyya that Salahuddin Ayyubi would exhaust the Muslim treasury, and even spend immense amounts from his own personal wealth just so he can free every single Muslim captive that his men could identify.
He would do this without hesitation; stating that securing their freedom superseded all other financial allocations as a number one priority.

Baha’ ad-Din ibn Shaddad explicitly wrote about this priority of Salahuddin:

"And the Sultan—may Allah have mercy on him—was intensely eager for the release of captives from the hands of the disbelievers, deeply preoccupied with it, to the point that not a single Muslim prisoner would remain in their hands except that he would spend vast amounts of wealth for their ransom, striving for their deliverance by every possible route."

The Ummah Is Supposed To Be One Body

It is basic fitrah to care for the Muslims as they are your own; they are your family!

Imam Malik says that if you truly cannot assist the captives by fighting or spending: then the very least that is expected of you is that you do Muwasah on them! This is from the Sunnah.
If we cannot free them, then we must keep the captives' morale high; we should give them kind words and much support. We must be a source of comfort and strength for them—especially the sisters.

Imagine being imprisoned and cut off from the world like they are—they need to know we stand with them, that we love them and that our entire body aches for them! By Allah this is the bare minimum that we can do. Their husbands fought for your religion, their children are suffering for your Prayers, and they themselves have sacrificed everything for you!
You should beg them for forgiveness; how do you expect their mercy on The Day of Judgement if Allah Almighty decides that they can take what they want from you as recompense for your spineless silence and insidious inaction?

It is the natural Fitrah to feel gheerah over our women and take care of them.

Even the Arabs of Jahiliyyah had more Gheerah over their women than these pseudo-Salafis do! They united to fight against Persia (and won) simply because the ruler was dishonoring one of their women, yet the Ummah remains silent even when there are hundreds of thousands of our women and children being assaulted, oppressed, tortured, raped, and murdered!

These same Arabs who would bury their new-born baby-girls alive had more Gheerah—dignity, honour and respect—over their women than you supposed 'Muslims' do.

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ waged war on the entire tribe of Banu Qaynuqa—placing them under siege for over 14 days—because a man from them exposed the nakedness of a single Muslim woman. She was not touched, nor was she raped or defiled—yet the honour and dignity of a Muslim woman is so sacred to Allah Almighty that a tribe who harbours a man that violated her modesty has all peace treaties dissolved and is now an active enemy to be destroyed!

By Allah it is absolutely disgraceful that I even have to remind you of this!

Where was this action—or even a fraction of it—when our sisters in Syria were being raped by the filthy Rafida scum, up until the point they were becoming pregnant? May Allah curse them!

As if the inaction of these ‘men’ was not enough; now there are “Sunni’s” sympathizing with Hezbollah and praising Iran—the same satanic scum that perpetrated those very crimes. By Allah you will be questioned; I pray that Allah forces you to face those men, women, and children who suffered tremendous torture from the Kuffar scum you celebrate.

Ya Rabbi, make it happen so that the innocent martyrs may seek revenge on them for their treasonous abandonment of loyalty to the Muslims.

What about the Muslim woman that was captured and imprisoned by the Byzantinians in the city of Amurriyya. While being abused in the marketplace, she cried out "Wa Mu'tasimah!" (“Where is Mu'tasim?!”), calling out for the Khalifah of the Muslims. A kafir mocked her, saying, "He will come to your rescue on a speckled-white horse!" Yet—when word of this reached him—Al-Mu'tasim immediately dropped his cup of drink, ordered his generals to halt all other campaigns, and mobilized an entire army of men to march to certain death for her freedom. He famously vowed not to touch food or rest until Amurriyya was destroyed, and the prisoners were freed from their captivity.

Allah Almighty gave them victory, and the triple-layered walls of the thought-to-be, impenetrable fortress were breached by a hoard of men who were willing to die in response to the single call of a single woman: “Wa Mu’tasimah!”

Our brothers of the past—may Allah have mercy on them—were truly the greatest of Men.

My brother, reason with me.

What is wrong with your heart that it doesn’t burn, ache, and harden with each beat that is spent doing anything outside of seeking the freedom of our innocent men, women, and children?

Hearing the news of our sisters being apprehended by the kuffar should burn us and shock us through to our core; Her pain, her suffering, and her imprisonment should each be a deep wound in the heart and soul of each and every individual in the entire Ummah!

How can you have ‘goals’ and ‘aspirations’ when there is a sister of yours whose only wish is for her children to escape the torture and oppression that they have spent their entire childhood enduring!

How can you have dreams and hopes when there are thousands of our children whose only hope and dream is to see their father one last time, or to relieve their mother’s suffering!

How can you see this and do nothing; You should gouge out your eyes—not so that you are safe from seeing our innocent children in pain—but because those eyes will testify to Allah Almighty against you for your corruption and cowardice!

How can you hear this and block your ears from the screams, cries, and calls for help?

Is it sufficient in stopping the guilt?

Do you not hear their cries echoing throughout your heart and mind?

Are you not utterly terrified of what Allah will ask you on Judgement Day?

What excuse do you have? By Allah you have none!

How are you not weeping over what you have allowed to happen to our pure women and children—what is wrong with you, that your heart is so dead and empty?

Your mother, sister, aunty, niece, daughter, wife—do you want this for them?

Then wake up! It is your mothers, aunties, sisters, and daughters that are going through this! They are not strangers, they are not individuals, and this is not a personal problem: By Allah they are our family, they are our responsibility, and we have failed them!

Akbil Ya Mujahid: This Is A Call To Action!

You have a decision to make—the most important decision you have ever made.

Your eyes have read my words, your hands have turned every page, the angels have recorded your reading of this, and Allah Almighty Himself is witness to all of this.

What are you going to do, in order to save yourself from the testimony—of all that I just mentioned—on The Day of Judgement? You have no escape, By Allah!

Stop your cowardice! Stop your excuses! You want to be a man—a real man—then start now. These women and children of ours are being tortured and oppressed right now, as you are reading this! You should be crying over your assistance in their oppression!

It is time that we fight; enough is enough!

What excuse is there for those of you who are a stone's throw away from the captives? By Allah, it is obligatory that you pick up arms and you wage Jihad until they are free! Imam an-Nawawi explicitly stated that freeing the captives is of a higher personal obligation than defending the Muslim lands under invasion, this means that you do not seek permission from any 'leader,' 'Imam' or 'Ruler'—because this is not a requirement for Defensive Jihad which is a lesser obligation in comparison!

Would you wait for the filthy apostates to grant permission if there were a people transgressing the Ka'aba? What if they were descrating the grave of The Messenger of Allah ﷺ? You surely would not! So why is it that the Ummah that he (ﷺ) would have sacrificed and desecrated himself for is of less importance to you? Stand up! Take your arms! Go set out to free our men, women, and children whom you are so close to!

Have firm resolve that Allah Almighty will grant you victory; the enemy will never defeat you when the bullets they fire are your keys to Martyrdom!

Wage This War With Your Wealth!

You are not exempt from this Jihad just because of your incapacitating distance. It is now your obligation to spend absolutely every single cent—the excess of your bare-minimum survival—in the war against the filthy kuffar who are holding them captive. Feed them, clothe them, house them, and arm the ones who are trying to liberate them!

By Allah this wealth belongs to them. It is their right, and you are withholding it.
May Allah Almighty curse those who knowingly close their hands from returning the due rights of our widows and orphans!
Their men fought for the religion that you claim to love, follow, and honour. Allah Almighty has honoured them, so who do you think you are to strip that honour from them? They are the heartbeat of this Ummah; The Victorious Party. It is they who keep Allah Almighty from destroying us—because of their piety and steadfastness. Their stories, voices, and faces are what revive the hearts of the dead. How astonishing is it? So pay them; give them their earnings for preserving your chance at salvation through their struggle.

Why should you get to eat, when they don't?

The Least You Can Do.

For those of you who truly cannot do what is obligated: you must do Muwasamah on them.
Do not remain silent: share their stories, shout their names, and demand from your 'Imams' and 'scholars' that they do something about it.
You need to honour them as they deserve! Write letters to them, make sure that they know their status; make sure they know their sacrifice is seen and not in vain!
They need to know—and feel—our love for them. They need to know that we stand with them against the world.

We must be their strength and comfort—what else is the Ummah for but to stand together? Remind them of what Allah Almighty has promised them in the Qur'an, what The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has said about their status and what glad tidings he has given to them.
Remind them to be patient, remind them that Allah is near, remind them that the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ will intercede for them, and that their family who was martyred will be permitted to intercede also!

You should be pouring your heart out to them, begging and crying for their forgiveness.
You should be reminding our sons to stay strong for their mothers, and our daughters that by the will of Allah Almighty we will free them and keep them safe.
You should be reminding our sisters—who have to endure the sight of their children in such pain and hardship—that they are on the Haqq; that they just need to seek help in patience and prayer, that—soon—the help of Allah will come to their aid.

How great will the reward be for those who reassure them that they have not been abandoned?

Keep Them Alive In Your Duas.

Every single Muslim on earth should be making dua for them.

The Messenger ﷺ would make dua for prisoners and mention them by name, individually, in the Qunoot, he wouldn't even mention the martyrs by name in this dua!

The implication is immense!

What an injustice it is that Allah Almighty has given you a tongue, and you do not even use it to beg for your brothers and sisters to be saved? This is not a light matter, this is a filthy, inexcusable betrayal against your Ummah. How dare you use that tongue that was given to you to commit sins, but for our Ummah it stays silent!

Places And Cases That Are Still Ongoing Right Now!

These are only some of the many, there are so many I couldn't possibly write about them all in one single report!

SYRIA

1. Al-Hol Camp

- Location: Northeastern Syria, Hasakah province
- Operator: Kurdish-led Autonomous Administration of North and East Syria (AANES), Syrian Democratic Forces (SDF), Syrian government forces
- Population: ~42,500 (including 18,000 foreigners from 60+ countries, 60% children)
- Most Recent Atrocities (2025–2026):
    - Mass killings, enforced disappearances, and arbitrary detention in inhumane conditions (6+ years for many detainees).
    - Chaotic transfer of control to Syrian authorities in January 2026, with ~20,000 detainees unaccounted for after the camp's effective closure by late February 2026.
    - Security raids by Kurdish Asayish forces involving beatings, kidnappings, ransom demands, and destruction of property.
    - US freeze on foreign aid exacerbating shortages of food, medical care, and essential goods.
    - Dozens of deaths from malnutrition, disease, and violence; torture and sexual violence widely reported.
    - "Annex" section holds non-Syrian/Iraqi women and children in heavily secured, degrading conditions.
    - No legal charges for most detainees, violating international law.
